DUKE OF YORK'S WEDDING.

The King Confers Special Honours.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, April 25.
On the occasion of his marriage, His Majesty the King has conferred on the Duke of York a Knighthood of the Thistle, on the Earl of Strathmore the title of Knight Grand Cross of the Victorian Order, and on Wing Commander Louis Greig, Comptroller to the Duke of York, the Commandership of the Victorian Order.

London, April 25.
At the annual festival of the United Grand Lodge of England in Freemasons Hall, presided over by the Duke of Connaught, the Duke of York was appointed Senior Grand Warden in succession to the Prince of Wales. Lord Hewart was appointed Junior Grand Warden.

THE TURKISH SETTLEMENT.

Question of Russia's Attendance.

Lausanne, April 25.
The economic committee which is discussing the economic clauses of the treaty has upheld the provision for mixed arbitral tribunals, though the Turks desired to substitute ordinary courts of law.

Lausanne, April 25.
At a meeting of the first commission, Ismet Pasha declared that if it was intended to modify the treaty clauses relative to the Straits, the Russians should be invited to send a representative. The Allies replied that there was no intention of reopening the question, but the Russians had been informed that their presence would be desirable should they modify their attitude.

Lausanne, April 25.
Ismet Pasha's reference to Russia and the Straits has attracted considerable attention and is regarded as indicating that Russia intends modifying her attitude by becoming a signatory to the Treaty. The return of the Russians to Lausanne is consequently regarded as likely.

GREAT BRITAIN AND THE SOVIET.

Strong Representations to be Made.

London, April 25.
In the House of Commons, replying to questions in regard to a series of acts by the Russian Government of which British subjects were victims, including the seizure of a Hull trawler by Bolsheviks off the Murman Coast and the murder of a British subject at Petrograd in January, 1920, Mr. Ronald McNeill said the Government and the country were profoundly indignant thereat. (Cheers). He proposed without delay to address a serious communication to Russia.

Meanwhile the British representative at Moscow would not cease to exert his influence in the strongest possible manner in the case of the trawler where the action of the Soviet authorities was regarded by the Government as wholly unjustifiable.

Commander Wedgwood declared that the people of Britain were not anxious for a new war. (Labour cheers).

Mr. McNeill said he was perfectly aware of that and that was why the Government had taken the attitude it had.

GERMAN OPTIMISM DAMPED.

Preliminaries to Negotiations.

London, April 25.
An authoritative announcement in London yesterday expressing surprise at the tendency in Germany to interpret Lord Curzon's speech of April 20th as indicating the possibility of British mediation, and declaring that Germany must approach France direct, has acted, according to a Berlin message, as a cold douche in German political circles, who believed the speech meant an early solution of the reparations problem. Dr. Cuno yesterday discussed with German industrialists the question of whether they would guarantee any new offer to France.

THE IRISH OUTLOOK.

Possession of Arms Permitted.

Dublin, April 25.
The Free State Government has significantly decided to allow suitable citizens in Dublin to possess firearms, with the necessary safeguards. This is regarded as an interesting commentary on the advance of normal conditions, implying the Government's belief that the period of widespread disorder has ended. Permission to carry will doubtless be extended all over the country if the experience of the city prove satisfactory.

Three irregulars captured in the recent fight at the caves in Kerry have been executed at Tralee, and included an Englishman, a deserter from the East Lancs Regiment.

THE RUBBER RESTRICTION SCHEME.

London, April 25.
The Times in its "City Notes," referring to the excessive number of export licences granted to native planters under the rubber restriction scheme owing to incomplete statistical information in regard to native-owned estates and the consequent overestimate of standard production, presumes that immediate steps will be taken to tighten up the application of the scheme. In this respect it says that the sale of surplus export licences seems open to question.

GOVERNMENT'S BIG MAJORITY HOUSING BILL.

London, April 26.
In the House of Commons, after a debate characterized by numerous interruptions, the Labour motion for rejection of the Housing Bill was defeated by 340 votes to 140—the largest majority the Government has had. The result was greeted with loud and continued Ministerial cheers and the Bill read a second time.

THE CHESTER CONCESSIONS.

Questions in British Parliament.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, April 25.
In the House of Commons, Lord Curzon drew attention to the speech of Admiral Chester, as cabled on April 21st. Mr. Ronald McNeill said he was not aware of any foundation for the statement that spheres of influence had thrown obstacles in Admiral Chester's way. There was no record of the British Ambassador giving any such assurance as Admiral Chester mentioned, consequently there was no question of his being over-ruled. The Government had not taken any action to interfere with American commercial enterprise. Replying to Com. Wedgwood, Mr. McNeill said he had not received any complaints that the concession conflicted with concessions previously granted to British subjects. The Government had no intention of initiating a discussion on the subject at Lausanne.

BRITAIN'S SUBMARINE STRENGTH.

The Singapore Naval Base.

London, April 25.
In the House of Commons, replying to Capt. Berkeley with regard to submarines launched since 1913, now commissioned or capable of being commissioned, Mr. Amery gave the following figures: Fully commissioned, United States 76, France 41, Japan 43, Italy 43, and Britain 52, of which twelve were in reserve. Capable of being commissioned, United States 26, and Britain seven, the remainder nil.

Replying to Mr. G. Lambert, Mr. Amery stated that beyond four thousand sterling spent on a preliminary survey, no work had been commenced and no expenditure had been or would be incurred in respect to the Singapore naval base until the money be voted by the House of Commons.

BOXER MONEY FOR CHINA'S DEBT.

London, April 25.
In the House of Commons, replying to Mr. P. J. H. Hannon, Mr. McNeill said that the committee to consider the procedure in connection with the utilisation of the Boxer indemnity was about to be appointed. He was very doubtful regarding the desirability of utilising the indemnity funds in order to meet the default in Chinese unsecured debts, but was prepared to refer the suggestion to the committee.

OPIUM SALES IN INDIA.

London, April 25.
In the House of Commons at question time Earl Winterton stated that the number of chests of opium sold at Calcutta auctions for the years ending March 31, 1921, 1922 and 1923, were respectively 1,550, 935 and 2,890. He would enquire from the Government of India with regard to the places to which this opium was exported.

PIRATES ON CANTON RIVER.

Sensational Story Brought by s.s. Fatshan.

SS. SAICHOW LOOTED OF CARGO.

One of the officers of the s.s. Fatshan on arrival at Hongkong last night made a report to the police of what was apparently a daring daylight piracy at the Canton River estuary. Later information from the local agents of the vessel involved, the s.s. Saichow, confirms this news.

A Japanese steamer going up to Canton passed the s.s. Saichow which is a Chinese wooden steamer of 900 tons, on the Hongkong-Canton run—yesterday afternoon, apparently ashore a mile above Amherst Point, about eight miles below Whampoa, and passed the news on to a small Portuguese vessel on the Canton-Macao run. The Portuguese ship hailed the s.s. Fatshan, telling of the happening. The Fatshan approached Amherst Point at twenty minutes to seven or thereabouts, and saw the s.s. Saichow, aground, with her winches working, discharging her cargo into four junks and a launch which were lying along-side. When the Fatshan drew near, she was hailed in Chinese, and told to sheer off and get away as quickly as possible. The obvious conclusion was that there was a piracy in progress, and the Fatshan came on to Hongkong.

The light was sufficient at the time, a quarter to seven in the evening, for the people on the Fatshan to make out what was happening on board the Saichow. There were no signs of confusion, dead bodies, or bloodstains of any kind, and things appeared almost normal. A group of Chinese on the deck, numbering twelve to fifteen, were dressed in long dark coats, and might have been tally clerks or the like, so far as outward appearances went.

The Local Agents' Story.
A call on the Yue Woo Steamship Company, which operates the Saichow and two other steamers, disclosed no details to throw further light on the piracy. The Company are convinced, however, that the vessel has been pirated. The Saichow left port yesterday morning at eight o'clock and in the ordinary course should have arrived at Canton at eleven o'clock. The manager said he did not think it likely that the pirates boarded her in Hongkong as passengers, the vessel being used for the transportation of freight only. He surmised that the pirates must have intercepted her on the voyage up, and brought her to the point where they beached her.

The Saichow, with a carrying capacity of 900 tons, had aboard 5,900 bags of rice, worth nearly half a lakh, and carried a small complement comprising a Chinese skipper and Chinese seamen. The exact locality where she is now beached is Sampanchow, near the Lim Fah Shan, a promontory in the Bocca Tigris forts area. Three steamers are known to have passed her as she lay in that position—the Tiesang the Newchwang and the Fatshan.

The Newchwang, which passed at 5.40 p.m. endeavoured to find out what was wrong with her by semaphore signalling, but there was no response. Later the Fatshan passed by and what happened has already been related above.

British Gunboats Advised.
When word was received here of the position, the manager of the Company interviewed the Commissioner of Chinese Customs and the Harbour Master. Both these officials said that the matter was out of their jurisdiction. The manager understood, however, that certain British gunboats on the Canton River are being got into communication with by wireless, so that they can proceed to the scene and make enquiries. Formerly there used to be Chinese gunboats stationed at the spot, but owing to the unrest in Canton these have been withdrawn and posted elsewhere.

Until her transfer to the present run in February last, the Saichow was operated on the Tourne-Holow-Hongkong run.

CHINA'S PLIGHT.

What President Li Thinks

Peking, April 25.—President Li Yuan-hung, interviewed by Reuter, said that although there might appear to be financial chaos in Peking and political and military strife throughout the country, appearances were often deceptive. The Chinese people as a whole continue to work and produce. "If wealth is labour, as economists tell us, China surely is wealthy." He emphasised the necessity of preserving a proper perspective in judging China. He doubted whether militarism in China, though deplorable, would produce bigger trouble than the present militarism in Europe.

Regarding financial difficulties and unpaid debts, the President declared there were other so-called civilised countries in a far worse condition. Concluding, he said he certainly was not pessimistic regarding China's future. China would recover and prosper. It would take some time, but meanwhile China would need all the forbearance and goodwill the foreigner could show. His hope was based on the good sense and sanity of the people, on the many signs of growing public consciousness of the need for unity and peace, and on the growing detestation of militarism.

The President said he believed that militarism would be broken if Parliament passed the new Constitution, which made no provision for Military Governors, etc., thus effecting the disbandment of about two million soldiers. He expected the Constitution would be passed within three or four months.—Reuter.

THE CHURCH IN JAPAN.

Control for Japanese Bishops.

Tokyo, April 26.—The Episcopal Church Synod, comprising eight English and American Bishops, in session at Tokyo, decided to create new dioceses for Tokyo and Osaka, turning over the entire ecclesiastical control to two Japanese Bishops.—Reuter.

Steamer Fired At.

Another steamer which passed the pirated boat last night was the s.s. Shingcheong, and she was fired at by the pirates. To those aboard the passing steamer it was evident that something unusual was taking place, and she drew fairly near. Very soon, however, it was realised that the boat was in the hands of pirates, who fired a few shots at the Shingcheong, luckily without doing any damage.

OIL CONCESSION IN TURKEY.

Constantinople, April 25. Further details concerning the Chester Concession rather knock the "gilt off the ginger bread." The concession is valid for 99 years, but the Government may buy the railways after thirty years and if the construction on the sector at Samsun and Sivas is not begun within six years the whole concession will be rendered void and the deposit of ten thousand sterling forfeited. The new company is subject to all Turkish taxation and must also pay thirty per cent. profits to the Government. It may import coal and materials duty free and employ foreign experts, but must train Turks to replace them, and ordinary labour must be purely Turkish.

INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE.

New York, April 25. The newspapers think that President Harding's speech on the International Court of Justice indicates that the President intends to seriously press the project of American membership despite the opposition of Republican leaders and others. The New York Herald thinks that the speech is unconvincing and says the President reaffirmed an uncompromising stand against American membership in the League of Nations, yet he argued for American membership in the Court created by the League, and which is really an adjunct of the League.

BANQUE INDUSTRIELLE PROSECUTIONS.

Paris, April 25. Among the ten Banque Industrielle officials to be prosecuted is Senator Andre Berthelot on charges of wrongfully issuing shares and distributing fictitious dividends. M. Other Banque Industrielle officials ordered to be prosecuted include Senator J. Perchoty and two auditors of the Company.

REICHSBANK PRESIDENT'S ANGER.

London, April 25. President of the Reichsbank Herr Savenstein, explaining the six per cent. rise in the discount rate, severely referred to German industrialists, who were nullifying the Reichsbank's efforts to stabilize the mark. He complained that their daily speculations in foreign exchange far exceed their real needs and threatened to impose restrictions, irrespective of persons, if the practice did not cease.

The papers state that Herr Savenstein recently bought foreign exchange for several millions of gold marks in a single day.

KOWLOON BOWLING CLUB.

The Annual Meeting

Mr. D. Keith presided over the annual meeting of the Kowloon Bowling Green Club held last evening. There was a record attendance of members.

The Chairman explained in detail various items in the Balance Sheet. He mentioned that an honorarium of $250 each had been given the Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer. $200 was paid to the present Secretary and Treasurer and the odd $50 given to the former Secretary and Treasurer as decided at the last annual meeting.

On the motion of Mr. B. Wylie, seconded by Mr. J. H. Barr, the accounts were unanimously adopted.

A Successful Season.

The Chairman congratulated the Club upon the past successful season. Competitions were entered into in a hearty manner and carried through with very little trouble to the Committee. The Club was fortunate in winning the League for the second time, and he thought that if the members continued to stick together it would not be the last time. (Hear, Hear). He was afraid the League team would be weakened to a certain extent owing to the formation of the new Kowloon Dock Bowling Club, but he was quite sure there was sufficient talent left for the Club to give a good account of itself in the League. (Applause). Referring to the question of the extension of the Club house, the Chairman mentioned that it was still hanging fire owing to no decision having yet been arrived at by the Government. As soon as they knew something definite, they were prepared to proceed with the erection of a suitable Club house. The condition of the bowling greens and tennis courts was, the Chairman considered, second to none in the Colony. Great praise was due to the Green's Committee, and particularly to Mr. Russell, for the excellent results achieved. If all the greens in the Colony were like those at the Kowloon Bowling Green Club it would be a pleasure to play on them. The Chairman added that the Committee recommended that an honorarium of $200 be again given to both the Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer.

On the motion of Mr. W. Russell, seconded by Mr. W. J. Crawford, the meeting approved the Committee's recommendation. The President, Mr. Crawford proposed Mr. L. Guy as President. He said it was the usual practice to elevate the Vice President and as Mr. Guy served in that capacity last year and took a great interest in the doings of the Club, he thought he was the most suitable man that could be obtained.

Mr. Guy declined the honour. The real reason for his doing so, he said, was that he did not see eye to eye with other members in regard to the League. He was strongly of the opinion that the number of matches should be reduced from 14 to 7. The League matches should not monopolise the greater part of the playing season, and for the reason that the majority of members did not agree with him, he regretted that he could not consent to occupy the position of President. Otherwise, it would have given him great pleasure to do so.

Mr. Crawford reminded Mr. Guy that he was a member of the Club first and a player afterwards. Several members having expressed a desire that Mr. Guy should take office, that gentleman eventually submitted to nomination and was unanimously elected.

Before vacating the chair, Mr. Keith thanked the members of the Committee and the players for their co-operation during the last year.

Other Elections.

The names of Mr. E. L. Frost, Mr. J. H. Donnithorne and Mr. P. T. Farrell were submitted for the position of Vice-President, and on a ballot Mr. Donnithorne was elected. A ballot took place for the post of Hon. Secretary. Mr. J. P. Hamilton, Mr. J. O. McLaggan and Mr. R. J. Brown were nominated and the first named secured election.

Mr. R. Lapsley was unanimously confirmed in office as Hon. Treasurer on the proposition of the Chairman (Mr. L. Guy) seconded by Mr. D. Guy.

Twenty names were submitted for the Committee. Mr. J. M. Jack raised the question of the eligibility of members who were playing for the new Kowloon Dock team, and

TAIKOO CLUB CONCERT.

A Pleasant Evening.

An enjoyable concert was held last evening at the Taikoo Club when the officers and engineers of the Empress of Australia and other vessels at present in dock were entertained. There was a good sized audience present to enjoy a fine and varied programme.

One of the star turns of the evening was Mrs. Duncan whose selections were sung in a fine soprano voice which deeply impressed the listeners. Miss C. Hansen is a mezzo-soprano of great promise; her contributions to the programme being rendered with much feeling. Another singer possessing a voice of singular sweetness, was Miss Russell. Miss McLachlan gave some delightful songs and her piano selections were finely played. A piano duet was finely rendered by the Misses Wallace and Foulds. "My Old Shako," the famous baritone song, given by Mr. Cain, was a stirring item much appreciated as were also his other contributions. Another singer possessing a well modulated voice was Mr. G. McLeod, whilst Mr. George, a tenor, achieved a great success in his song "If I might only come to you." Variety was given to the programme by Mr. Thomson's like-like impressions. Mr. W. Gill's monologues, the duets by Messrs. Flock and George and Flock and Cain, and the concluding fine quartette "A Perfect Day" in which Messrs. Thomson, Flock, Cain and George took part. Mention should also be made of Mr. Sellers the pianist, to whose efforts much of the success of the evening was due.

was informed by the Chairman that they were still members of the Club and could be elected on the Committee. The following secured election on a ballot—Messrs. W. Russell, D. Gow, A. R. Whitley, P. T. Farrell, D. Harvey, G. Duncan, and J. H. Barr.

Mr. George Duncan was unanimously elected Captain of the Golf Section on the proposal of Mr. J. M. Jack.

The Interport.

The Chairman reminded the meeting that next season an Interport team would be sent down from Shanghai. This would mean that considerable expense would be incurred in connection with entertainment. "I mention this in anticipation of next year's balance sheet," the Chairman humorously remarked.

The Founders.

Mr. C. Bond mentioned that there were two or three original members of the Club who were still with them. He named Mr. D. Gow and Mr. R. Lapsley, and suggested that each year the Club should elect one of the founders a life member. He had great pleasure in proposing Mr. Gow.

Mr. D. Neilson, seconded. The Chairman, in supporting, spoke of the great interest and enormous amount of work Mr. Gow had done for the Club. During his twenty years' membership he had been a keen bowler and staunch supporter.

The motion was carried with enthusiasm.

Mr. Gow, replying, thanked the meeting for the great honour done him. He was home on holiday when the idea of the Club was first mooted in July or August, 1900, but returned in November to take part in the opening proceedings. He thought, therefore, he could fairly claim to be one of the founders. They first played the game on what were now the old tennis courts at Knutsford Terrace. He very much appreciated the honour of being elected a life member. He had done as much as he could for the Club and would continue to do so as long as he was in the Colony. (Applause).

The following were elected on the Balloting Committee—Messrs. S. Gray, J. O. McLaggan, A. M. Simpson, C. Bond, W. MacFarlane and A. Gourlay.

In response to an appeal by the Chairman, a number of members intimated their willingness to provide trophies for competition.

Mr. B. Wylie proposed a vote of thanks to last year's President and Committee, which was carried with applause.

After Mr. Keith had briefly replied, Mr. Guy expressed thanks to the members for turning up in such large numbers. He believed the attendance to be a record one. He asked members to accord him and the Committee their hearty support during the coming season.

INTER-SCHOOLS SPORTS.

A Notable Absentee.

Postponed last week on account of rain the annual interschool athletic sports were held at the Hongkong Jockey Club's enclosure, Race Course, yesterday.

This year there were only four schools competing, according to the programme, viz. Queen's College, Diocesan Boys' School, St. Stephen's and St. Paul's College. A notable absentee was St. Joseph's College, which for some reason was not represented. The sports were conducted under new conditions under which no individual prizes were given except to competitors belonging to the schools that won the championship cups, the idea being to promote general efficiency instead of individual brilliancy.

St. Paul's College retained the honour of being the champion school, which honour they won last year. A great ovation was accorded to their team when they received the championship shield presented by H. E. the Governor. Members of the team were presented with medals.

Mr. Ralston's Thanks.

At the end of the sports programme Mr. Ralston, in asking the Governor, Sir Edward Stubbs, to give away the prizes said they were fortunate in not having very bad weather. He thanked the donors of the medals for the winning teams and especially His Excellency who, since the last meeting, had donated a magnificent shield for the champion school. This was won for the second time by St. Paul's College which scored forty-five points out of a possible 81. Mr. Ralston said he was sorry the high jump took more time than was necessary. Owing to the heavy ground the competitors found it impossible to realise some of the heights which they attained in practices.

The Governor's Speech.

His Excellency said he was pleased to notice such a good attendance. He was sorry that the weather had been so indifferent and that it was impossible for the boys to break any records which they might otherwise have done under favourable conditions. He was also sorry to note the absence of St. Joseph's College, the name of which he so frequently saw on the old cup. Why that important institution had not taken its proper part in the sports he could not understand. It was a matter on which he would have to speak to Brother Amiar shortly. His Excellency concluded by congratulating St. Paul's College on having won the championship shield.

The Governor then gave away the cups, medals and the shield:

The following were the results: 100 yards: 1, Chan Kwong-in (St. Paul's C.); 2, Mok Tai-cheuk (Queen's C.); 3, Peter Young (St. Stephen's C.).

220 yards: 1, Lam Yuk-ying (St. P. C.); 2, Mok Tai-cheuk (Q. C.); 3, Wong Pok-kau (Q. C.).

Long jump: 1, Chan Kwong-in (St. P. C.); 2, Ki Yam-tak (Diocesan Boys' School); 3, See Wei-fook (St. P. C.).

Quarter mile: Ellis Kadoorie Challenge Cup: 1, Lu Chun-fook (St. P. C.); 2, Lau Kau (St. P. C.); 3, Hsu Hau-yah (St. Stephen's C.).

High jump: 1, Wong Shau-shek (St. P. C.).

Half mile, Canton Nanyang Brothers Challenge Cup: 1, Ip Kiu-yung (Q. C.); 2, Ling Sal-wu (St. Stephen's C.); 3, Lau Mo-tung (Q. C.).

Hurdles: 1, Lam Yuk-ying (St. P. C.); 2, Mok Tai-cheuk (Q. C.); 3, Lau Tak-ting (St. P. C.).

Old boys' race: A. Rumjahn. Senior team race: 1, St. Paul's; 2, Q. C.; 3, St. Stephen's. Junior team race: 1, Wanchai School.

The following were the officials: Starters: Messrs. J. C. Fletcher and F. A. Britton. Judges: Messrs. A. H. Crook, W. L. Handyside, W. Kay, J. E. Warner, Revs. E. K. Quick and H. S. Bailey.

Clerks of the course: Messrs. G. E. S. Upsell, S. S. Leung, C. E. Thomas.

Timekeeper: G. W. Reeve. Scores: Messrs. T. S. W. Chan, D. Trafford.

RESERVATIONS.

We have been, and still are, entirely sympathetic towards the pleas for distinctive European residential reservations. We would not deny others the right to have their reservations also. Our view is that people have a right to live amongst their own kind, under conditions which give them the minimum of annoyance and discomfort. The question arises, however, whether or not the ideal can be attained without the necessity for legislative action. There are grounds for thinking that the Government may be averse to specifically setting aside certain areas for the exclusive use of various sections of the community. If that is so, then the problem must be approached from another angle. To that point we will return later.

If we look at this question from the practical standpoint, we shall soon find that doubts arise as to the manner in which the setting aside, by legislative enactment, of distinctive reservations will work out. To the European who wants to live amongst his own kind but who has not the means to lay down a substantial sum in cash, such a method could make no great appeal. It might, and probably would, be appreciated by the man able to build for himself, but this is not the class whose needs require to be met by Government help. Then, too, it is hardly probable that speculative builders would, say in a European reservation, be willing to erect houses for others, because the same return might not be secured from property within the reservation as outside it. The problem could not be solved, either, by any such scheme as that at Kowloon Tong, which, so far as its original object is concerned, has not proved a success.

It seems to us, therefore, that if Europeans of moderate means want their own reservation, they must themselves make it. We will show how it could be done. Let a score or so of such Europeans form themselves into a Building Society of their own, apply to the Government for the lease of a plot of ground, on low terms, sufficient to accommodate twenty houses, and also for loans at a reasonable rate of interest. Then let them build, having previously worked out a scheme by which each, on occupation of his house, pays a certain sum monthly into the Society's funds, the house eventually to become his own property. Doubtless the monthly contribution could be worked out at even a less sum than ordinarily paid for rent, and arrangements could be made for transferring one's interest in the property in case a member left the Colony. But the backbone of the scheme (its main essential if the reservation ideal is to be fulfilled) would be a binding agreement amongst the members never to sell their houses to other than Europeans. Thus, by a self-denying ordinance, a real European reservation would be created. We have no doubt that such a scheme is practical. It should prove attractive, too, because a member's monthly outgoings would be less than under existing conditions, and, what is all-important, these sums would represent advancement to the eventual status of an owner-occupier. In the end, he would have saved money on the transaction and have a house of his own to boot. The point, however, is whether human nature and lack of trust in others would stand in the way of the fulfilment of such a scheme. We do not see why it should. But if it does, then we may as well write down the demand for a European reservation as so much cant and hypocrisy.

Fiji's Protest.

An interesting, and important, point of constitutional principle has arisen over the controversy between the Colonial Office and the Fiji legislature. It will be remembered that the Home authorities granted what practically meant special preference to a sugar company in that Colony without consulting the local legislators. Non-Government members of the Fiji Legislative Council were naturally concerned over this subjugation of their rights, and the affair has led to a question in the House of Commons. The reply—that "if an emergency arose in future the adoption of emergency measures might be necessary, but naturally constitutional procedure would be followed in all possible circumstances"—can be termed the reverse of satisfactory. A matter of this kind is of special interest to a Colony like Hongkong, which is ruled over (nominally, of course) by a Legislative Council. Without the right to elect Council representatives, and with an Official majority, the people in the end depend on Government magnanimity. Fortunately this power possessed by the authorities is hardly ever likely to be abused, but the case of Fiji illustrates the possibilities whenever the Colonial Office might see fit to declare a state of "emergency." Probably we have not heard the last of the matter.

America in World Affairs.

It is decidedly gratifying to read of President Harding's sturdy defence of the United States' participation in the Court of International Justice. He denied that it would be tantamount to entry into the League of Nations, and strictly speaking this is so; but what it really means is just as much the entry of America into international discussions, where she can put her weight on the side of right against might and see fair play. The League of Nations might by now have become a force to reckon with had the United States joined it. America wields an influence in world affairs additional to that arising from her position as a great Power—the indefinable moral influence which has arisen from the habit of regarding her as the land of liberty and equal opportunity for all. This aspect of regard is particularly noticeable in Continental politics. With the United States exercising a powerful influence in the Court of International Justice the success of that institution will be assured, something of a reproach will be removed, and perhaps we shall find the nations soon within measurable distance of solving some of the grave problems that confront them and threaten to keep them estranged.

DAY BY DAY.

SUCCESS? IF THE THING IS UNJUST, THOU HAST NOT SUCCEEDED.

Yesterday's health return shows two cases of enteric fever and one each of plague and small-pox. All were Chinese.

Passengers who left by the Mishima Maru yesterday included Mr. and Mrs. A. Denison, Miss Denison, Mrs. W. E. L. Shenton, Mrs. A. R. Lowe, and Mrs. de Rome.

A Chinese was taken to the Government Civil Hospital yesterday suffering from injuries caused by being knocked down by a tram near Collin Street, West Point.

Caught between the buffers of two trucks on the reclamation at Taikehsui yesterday, a 15-year-old lad had his thighs mashed when the wheels of one of the vehicles passed over it. He was taken to the Kwong Wah Hospital.

A fire broke out in the ground floor of No. 80 Yau Chan Street, Shamshui, yesterday. A store of tobacco kept in the ground floor was involved, and this was completely ruined either by fire or water. No damage was done to the building.

The trial of Wu Kwong-cheung, before the Chief Justice, at the Criminal Sessions, on a charge of murdering a woman at a house in Kennedy Town, ended yesterday afternoon. The jury returned a verdict of "guilty" and accused was sentenced to death.

Messrs. W. R. Loxley and Co. announce that the manufacturers of the famous "Vale" auto-stop safety razor have placed a new model on the market which embodies all the practical features, with a less expensive finish. This latest "easy shaving" device is obtainable at local stores at the low price of $2.95.

THE RADIO CLUB.

Many Prospective Members.

Close on eighty names have now been received of residents who wish to join the proposed Hongkong Radio Club. We would ask these to accept the notice calling the inaugural meeting for Monday next as an invitation to be present.

Several people have written making enquiries on specific points in connection with the Club. To these we would point out that all such questions can be dealt with at the inaugural meeting.

KENNEDY TOWN MURDER.

Second Accused On Trial.

Lam Chuen appeared before Mr. Justice Gompertz, at the Criminal Sessions, this morning, charged with murdering a woman in a house at Kennedy Town on Feb. 9th. Two men were arrested in connection with the crime, but in the interests of justice it was decided to try them separately. Wu Kwong-cheung, the other accused, came before the Chief Justice, was found "guilty" and sentenced to death yesterday afternoon.

The jury in the present case are Messrs. F. E. Hawthorne (foreman), D. Reid, H. W. Ray, C. V. Carlos, A. Abraham, Choy Kang-yan and Lam Chun-shang. The Crown's case is being conducted by the Attorney General (Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp), and Mr. Campbell Frouser is appearing for the defence.

Before commencing his opening address, the Attorney General told the jury that it was quite possible they knew that "another man had already been tried in connection with this murder, but he asked them to dismiss anything they might have read or heard about the trial from their minds. Nothing whatever in the former trial had any bearing as far as their duty went in this case. They might or might not have heard of statements having been made, which might or might not have been true, but they must disregard them.

The Attorney General then presented the Crown's case, after which the jury, the Judge and counsel went to inspect the scene of the crime. Evidence was then taken. The case is proceeding.

TO-DAY'S WEDDING.

Duke of York Married.

ROYAL HOUSE UNITED TO OLD SCOTTISH FAMILY.

THE BRIDEGROOM.

A Royal wedding which is attracting world-wide notice takes place at Westminster Abbey today, when H.R.H. the Duke of York is to be married to Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon. It will be noticed from telegrams appearing elsewhere that, in honour of the event, decorations have been conferred on the bridegroom and the bride's father. Locally, the occasion has been marked by the men-of-war and other vessels in port dressing ship, whilst at noon a Royal Salute was fired.

The Bridegroom.

Prince Albert Frederick, Duke of York, is the second son of King George and is 27 years of age, having been born on Dec. 14, 1895. He is an officer in the Royal Air Force and is very keen on all forms of sport. Like all the King's sons, he has from his boyhood led an active life. He was first in the Navy, then was transferred to the Air Force, and in both services he showed capacity, and made many friends. The Duke of York is our royal philanthropist, and the summer before last he initiated an experiment in sociology which was so successful that he repeated it. For seven days 400 boys, half from factories and workshops, and the rest from public schools and elsewhere, were his guests in a camp at New Romney. At first the two parties could not understand each other, but soon they were brought together into a happy understanding community. The camp bathed and exercised together, and joined in all the "official" games in the spirit of a big school.

His Royal Highness is a good all-round sportsman, a fair shot and a clever rider, though not so keen about hunting as his elder brother, the Prince of Wales, nor tinske. The family own Glamis so good a horseman as Prince Henry, who is the best in the saddle of all the royal brothers, which is perhaps only natural as his Majesty's third son is a cavalryman. He plays cricket, much likes to see a good game of football, and is fond of motorcycling, his claret-coloured car with himself at the wheel being a familiar sight in the West-End.

The Duke of York has many other interests, not the least of which is the study of practical problems of industry in relation to employers and workers, and he has been no ornamental figurehead as President of the Industrial Welfare Society. His recent visits to Trade Union headquarters have demonstrated his keen interest in labour questions.

The Bride's Family.

Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon is the daughter of the Earl of Strathmore. By the marriage, there will be a union of the Royal House with one of the oldest of the noble families of Scotland, for the Earldom of Strathmore and Kipghorne dates back to 1677, the present holder of the title being the fourteenth of the his line, whilst the secondary title of Baron Glamis is traced to as early as 1445. The family records form a most exciting story, starting with Patrick Lyon, who was a hostage to England for James I in 1425. The sixth Baron's wife was burnt at Edinburgh, the family being indicted for designs against the life of James V. The fifth Earl was a staunch supporter of the unfortunate Stewarts and lost his life at Sheriffmuir in 1715. Through his and a clever rider, though not so keen about hunting as his elder brother, the Prince of Wales, nor tinske. The family own Glamis so good a horseman as Prince Henry, who is the best in the saddle of all the royal brothers, which is perhaps only natural as his Majesty's third son is a cavalryman. He plays cricket, much likes to see a good game of football, and is fond of motorcycling, his claret-coloured car with himself at the wheel being a familiar sight in the West-End.

The Bridesmaids.

The eight bridesmaids accompanying Lady Elizabeth today will form a lovely group, well representative of British girlhood. The names of the bridesmaids are—Lady Mary Cambridge, daughter of the Marquis of Cambridge; Lady May Cambridge, daughter of the Earl of Athlone; Lady Katherine Hamilton, daughter of the Duke of Abercorn; Lady Mary Thynne, daughter of the Marquis of Bath; Hon. Elizabeth Elphinstone, daughter of Lord Elphinstone; Hon. Diamond Hardinge, daughter of Lord Hardinge of Penshurst; Hon. Cecilia Bowes-Lyon, daughter of Lord Glamis; Miss Betty Cator, daughter of John Cator, Esq. Three of these bridesmaids note with Lady Elizabeth herself, in the wedding of Princess Mary. They are Lady Mary Cambridge, Lady May Cambridge, and Lady Mary Thynne.

TO-DAY'S CANTON NEWS.

Reported Kwangsi Counter-Attacks.

GEN. CHAN'S ATTITUDE.
(Our Own Correspondent.)

Canton, April 25.
There is very little fresh news from the fighting area to-day. The progress of the Yunnanese seems to have ceased for the moment, but that is only to be expected, as the advance so far has been very rapid.
Yesterday a large number of troops of General Li Fuk-lam's command arrived in Canton from the direction of Samshui; their destination is not known for certain, but they are believed to have gone to Sheklung.

Condition of the City.

During the last few days a great improvement is to be noticed in the city, largely due to the energy of the new Chief of the Department of Public Safety, Mr. Ng Tsi-shing. The sanitary work is now being done satisfactorily, and this department has again been put under the control of the police. In the police also there is an improvement, and there is a new force of Special Traffic Police now on duty, who, considering the short time they have been in existence, are doing very well. They are dressed in white linen uniforms, with topcoats, and are provided with black and white batons of a similar type to those in use in the Hongkong Police. They are stationed at important corners on the main thoroughfares and direct the motor and ricksha traffic. It is believed that Mr. Ng intends to ask for some advice and assistance from the Hongkong Police for the training of the Traffic Police.

In order to preserve order, a system of motor car patrols has been organised, consisting of the Gendarmes, a semi-military police dressed in khaki with black braid, who go round the various main streets in motor cars.

The transport arrangements for the troops in the city have now been put under the control of the Department of Public Safety, who have commandeered all the motor cars, lorries, and motor buses for the transport of troops and stores. Coolies are also engaged by them for carrying outside the city. They are responsible for the payment for all the transport commandeered.

An interesting development that has been noticed lately in connection with the impressing of labour has been that the officer in charge of a party collecting transport coolies often has with him two soldiers carrying models in wood, of the old executioner's axe, who walk on either side of him, and one walking in front of him carrying a kind of painted fan which is known as a "Ling Tsin," to show that he is vested with extraordinary powers.

Gunboat Sunk.

Another correspondent informs us that a gunboat which was anchored off the Macao forts for the protection of passenger and cargo junks has been mined and sunk. It is believed by pirates. Four of the crew are missing, but the remaining twenty managed to reach shore safely.

Reported Kwangsi Successes.

A rumour prevails that Shiu-shing was taken by the Kwangsi forces on the 24th, and that the Cantonese have retreated so far down as Kwonglee.

A report from the northern part of the province states that fighting has been taking place daily between the Kwangsi and Yunnan troops in front of Sun Kai, the Yunnanese forces remaining for some reason in the rear. Another report states that General Shum Hung-ying's defence lines have been strengthened by the arrival of reinforcements from the north, and that the pursuing forces have been counter-attacked and forced to retreat.

Chan King-ming Against Shum.

The following message from Peking we are able to publish through the courtesy of the Daily Bulletin:—It is reported that Chan King-ming recently held a conference with Tung Chao-lin and others at Hongkong, when he decided that he could not co-operate with Shum Hung-ying, who was untrustworthy, but he would mobilise forces for the defence of the districts of Wai-chow and Chaochow and to check the entry of Hsu Sung-chi into Kwangtung, while another force should march from Waichow to Canton.

JUJITSU v. BOXING.

Contests Disappointing.

The contests at the Theatre Royal last night, in which three Japanese, versed in the art of jujitsu, pitted their skill against two boxers and a Graeco-Roman wrestler, were for the most part rather disappointing. The body of the Theatre was well filled, the Japanese being there in full force. "Sky" Kerrison acted as M. C.

The first contest was between H. Tomikawa (jujitsu) and Nick Boyle, of Australia, (boxing). Both men were very wary. Looking for openings, they circled round one another. Boyle sailed in with some terrific upper cuts several times. If they had found their mark the fight would probably have ended in quick time, but the Japanese was too nimble on his feet for the boxer, and none of the blows reached home. Boyle succeeded in hitting his man twice, but the Japanese's clever foot work made the punches non-effective. The round, which was very tame, ended with no advantage to either. In the second round the Japanese came to grips with his man. He seized him round the middle, there was a short scuffle, in which Boyle seemed quite helpless, and in a few seconds the boxer was down. The Japanese put on a throttling grip and the boxer waved his hand as a sign of defeat.

There was some misunderstanding about the rules of the fight. The jujitsu man had won the first point. It was thought that the decision rested on the best out of three and as the Japanese was not anxious to continue, Boyle was declared the winner. Tomikawa had injured his hand, it appeared, and as he was down to give an exhibition in jujitsu at the end of the contest he thought it better to withdraw. When the combatants had left the ring, however, the officials decided that the contest was to be decided on either of the men winning the first point, and the Japanese was therefore declared the winner. The misunderstanding was unfortunate, because Boyle was shaping very well and the fight was not without interest.

It may be mentioned here that Boyle, who has been fighting in Manila, would like to meet local boxers during his stay in the Colony. He challenges any welterweight for a contest of twelve or fifteen rounds.

In the second fight the jujitsu man had an easy victory. The combatants were S. Nakano and James A. Peete, of Manila. The boxer sailed right in at the start. He was game, but as an exponent of the noble art he appeared a novice and his punches lacked force. The Japanese was all over him. Peete was thrown several times in the first round. In the second he did no better. He put up a plucky show, but could do nothing, and in the third round the Japanese put a grip on his arm and the boxer had to be assisted to his corner.

The best contest of the evening was that between J.K. Kawashima (jujitsu) and W. Walchoneff (Graeco-Roman wrestler), a Russian, living in Kowloon, for a purse of $500. Walchoneff stripped a magnificent specimen of manhood. He was as big again as the Japanese. The first round went the full twenty minutes. The Russian appeared to know as much about the game as his opponent. This, combined with his advantage in strength, made him easily the superior man. He threw the Japanese when and where he liked. He had him at his mercy, but could find no hold which would make the jujitsu man give in. The Russian showed that the Graeco-Roman style is a useful method of self defence, and although the first round ended, under the rules of the contest, with no points to either man, he was easily the superior.

The first point was scored in the second round. The Japanese fixed himself on the Russian's back, when Walchoneff was standing up. He put on a throat lock and by putting pressure on a certain nerve centre he rendered his opponent powerless, and Walchoneff had to give in. The round did not last much more than a couple of minutes.

The third round was over as quickly as the second. It was Walchoneff's turn now. He put a leg hold on the Japanese and Kawashima gave the Russian the point. The contest was declared a draw, but had they fought another round for a decision the Russian would not have been second favourite.

The performance concluded with an exhibition in jujitsu between Tomikawa and Nakano.

LOCAL FOOTBALL.

Last Match of the Season.

[BY "QUIZ"]

On Saturday next the football season will close with a farewell match between the South China F.C. and a team selected from the Hongkong F.C. The latter team will include three of the Kowloon players while Lt. Jones, of the King's, will lead the attack. The game will be a good test for the locals and the public will be able to form their opinion as to what chances the South China team will have at the coming Olympic Games.

The local team played a friendly match with a Canton team on the Club ground last Monday afternoon, but the match was brought to an abrupt conclusion early in the second half owing to some of the visitors' supporters going on to the ground and stopping the game because the players were leading by two goals to nil. It would be advisable, in the interest of these friendly contests, if an European referee were appointed to such games, so that the players could be held before the game developed into a rough and tumble.

South China F. C.

The season now closing has been a successful one for the South China team, as they finished in the lower half of the League table with 18 points. Out of 18 matches played, they won 5, only lost 9, and drew three, while they were given the points in their return fixtures with the Durban and Police. They scored 29 goals and had 33 scored against them. Their last win was on the 16th, December last, when they beat the present shield-holders (Kowloon) by four goals to one.

In the second round of the Senior Challenge Shield Competition, they lost to the King's by a goal to nil in the replay, after a very hard game ending, after extra time, in a draw of one goal all. In the first game they were lucky to level up, as one of the King's defenders put the ball into his own goal.

Towards the end of the season the team were lacking in combination and suffered accordingly. Although we wish them every success in the coming Olympiad, they will have to improve should they wish to hold their position as Far Eastern Champions as on the last occasion they only managed to win by the odd goal. They can field a good side, and although the names of the players have not yet been published, it is expected that Lau Hing-cheung, Chan So, Fung Tai, Leung Yuk-tong, Leung Tai-fong, Chu Kwong-yeung, Ip Kau, Wong Pak-chong and Chan Kwong-yiu will be included.

A MODERN PROBLEM.

It is reported that the colony of Russian refugees in Shanghai is gradually increasing in numbers and the problem of their maintenance thus assumes larger proportions daily, in that groups of, in the average, five to 20 arrive by ship and train from the northern cities. The Japanese of Manchuria and Dairen, are said to be furnishing transportation and food to suffice until they get to Shanghai.

COUSIN SYSTEM FOR THE WORLD.

There's a good time coming. Mr. Cousin says so. If he didn't believe it he wouldn't say so, and then the good time would come in spite of itself. The prophet of auto-suggestion is quoted in the American Press as saying: "I am not a pessimist, and I refuse to believe that our civilization is already foundering. And did I believe it I would discourage such sombre predictions, for the law of suggestion is immutable, and to disseminate them is to facilitate their realization." From this we understand that our nation and our race are to be saved by saying "Every day and in every way we grow better and better." Most of us are quite prepared to believe so, unless we are convinced that we are already perfect. The trouble is that too many of us are inclined to think that the other nation or race or person is not only not as we are but every day and in every way is growing worse and worse. A Cousin who would make us think better of our neighbours than of ourselves would be worth while. —Japan Chronicle.

THE UNTOUCHED MEAL.

Many people starve although they have ample food on the table. They simply cannot eat. Loss of appetite is a sign of the trouble that sooner or later reveals itself as indigestion, nervous dyspepsia, with low spirits and many other distressing symptoms. Beware of loss of appetite. Long continued exhaustion is bound to produce serious debility.

The secret of keeping well is to keep up the quality of your blood; for this there is no better medicine than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. By enriching the blood, these pills supply strength to the enfeebled digestive organs, and enable them to digest the food eaten. Sufferers from indigestion and nervous dyspepsia will do well to take DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS. The Blood and Nerve Tonic which has been world-famous for over thirty years.

Obtainable from medicine vendors everywhere, or post free, $1.50 per bottle, $3.00 for 6 bottles, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

CORRESPONDENCE.

(To the Editor of the "Hongkong Telegraph.")

Reconstruction and the Rents Ordinance.

Sir,—In a recent letter which I sent to the Press, I promised to deal in a further letter with amendments which are required in the "reconstruction" provisions of the Rents Ordinance, and I now do so.

The "reconstruction" provisions are comprised in Section 4 (1) (b) of the Rents Ordinance, 1922, which authorizes the turning out of a tenant only if

"the lessor bona fide requires possession of the domestic tenement in order to pull down such domestic tenement, or in order to reconstruct such domestic tenement to such an extent as to make such domestic tenement a new building within the meaning of the Public Health and Building Ordinance, Ordinance
No. 1 of 1903, and shall have given the tenant three months notice to quit, stating in writing whether he intends to pull down or to reconstruct such domestic tenement, and in the latter case stating the exact nature of the reconstruction intended: Provided that if the lessor fails to begin the work of pulling down or reconstruction within one month after the lessee shall have given up to the lessor possession of the domestic tenement, or shall fail to carry out the said work with reasonable expedition, the lessor shall, unless the contrary be proved, be deemed for the purpose of Section 20 to have, in giving such notice, done an act mala fide with intent to induce the lessee to give up possession."

The above clause requires to be amended in the following particulars:

(i) The words "in order to pull down such domestic tenement or," in lines 2 and 3 should be deleted and also the words "to pull down or" in line 10, and the words "pulling down or"
in lines 14 and 15.

The above words should be deleted because
(1) They are unnecessary, as there cannot be any genuine pulling down except with a view to a reconstruction; and in particular,
(2) Because they lend themselves to evasion, i.e., the giving of a simple notice by the landlord that he "intends to pull down" such domestic tenement, without saying anything more.

(ii) The next amendment required in the clause is the insertion after the words "reconstruction intended" of the following words, namely:
"and shall, prior to the giving of any such notice have obtained from the Building Authority his certificate, (a copy of which shall be attached to such notice) to the effect that such intended reconstruction would have the effect of making such domestic tenement a new building within the Public Health and Building Ordinance, 1903 and also a certificate in writing from the Assessor (a copy of which certificate shall be attached to such notice) to the effect that such reconstruction is in the opinion of the Assessor desirable."

The reasons for the first part of this last suggested amendment is to prevent a tenant, who is less able to afford legal advice as to when a building is a new building within Ordinance 1 of 1903 than the landlord, from being bluffed out of the premises by the landlord.

The reason for the last part of the suggested amendment is that it seems desirable that the Assessor, who has the best means from the returns made to him of judging whether a considerable turning out of tenants is desirable or not and of whether other premises are available for such tenants to move into.

Another obvious argument against reconstruction (unless it is absolutely imperative) is that it employs skilled workmen who might otherwise be better employed in erecting new buildings on fresh sites.

In connection with this amendment generally it has been pointed out to me that landlords are unscrupulous in getting out tenants by either

(1) sham pretences at reconstruction,
(2) Reconstructions of buildings which are in good condition, but which it pays the landlord nevertheless to carry out in order to
(a) free himself from the rent restrictions of the Rents Ordinance, (b) enable him to get rid of the old tenants and to house wealthy newcomers from the neighbouring provinces.
(iii) The next amendment required is to make it a criminal offence (with a similar penalty, (namely 1,000 dollars) to that in section 20 of the Rents Ordinance), for a landlord to give to a tenant a notice to quit for the purpose of reconstruction which does not in all respects comply with section 4 (1) (b) of the Rents Ordinance, as so amended above. As I pointed out, in my previous letter to the press other attempts by the landlord to evade section 4 of the Ordinance ought also to be made a criminal offence, and I would add now that it seems only fair that a landlord should be penalized for any irregular attempt to bluff a tenant out of possession.

(iv) Another amendment required in the reconstruction provisions is a clause to compel the landlord to take back his former tenants in the reconstructed premises, at a rent to be settled by agreement between the parties, or failing such agreement by the Assessor whose award shall be final and conclusive.—Yours, etc.,
H. E. POLLOCK.
